

Insight Vector TCX2-WiFi / Ethernet

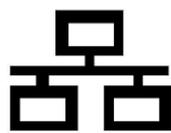

The TCX2-Wifi or Ethernet is a programmable universal controller with high level communications capabilities and wifi connectivity which allows the user to control the device via a graphical user interface. Each of the 4 control loops may use a P+I sequence, 6 binary stages, 8 universal inputs, and 3 analogue outputs.

FEATURES

-  Built in webserver for user control & monitoring.
-  User Friendly GUI for Control & Configuration.
-  Onboard interface with backlit LCD.
-  Optional remote wall mounted Touchscreen LCD OPT1.
-  BACnet and Modbus TCP/IP communication options.
-  Economy mode based on enthalpy or temperature.
-  Free EasySet programming software.
-  CO2 control with economy damper override function.
-  CO control for car park applications.
-  Humidity control with set point shift function.
-  Complete turnkey solutions available including programming and installation.
-  Service and support available. Contact us for options and pricing.

SUPPORTED PROTOCOLS

Ethernet

FEATURES

-  Quick and easy control of setpoint.
-  Gives the user a complete control overview of inputs & outputs.
-  Access via Phone, Tablet or PC.
-  Wifi or ethernet TCP/I configuration options..
-  Connect & configure with Easyset Wifi.
-  Multiple User access levels.
-  Free software with online updates.
-  Sensor calibration feature.
-  Complete turnkey solutions available including programming and installation.
-  Service and support available. Contact us for options and pricing.

D3, 5 Grevillea Place,
Brisbane Airport QLD 4008
Ph: 1300 665 831

✉ sales@insightcontrol.net.au
🌐 www.insightcontrol.net.au

